Tourism Management

A mountain village limits the number of visitors during peak season. The policy protects walking trails and reduces pressure on water supplies. Some business owners initially opposed the restriction, but many later supported it after longer visitor stays increased local income.

1. Which TWO statements are supported by the text?

- A. The main participants refused to take part.
- B. Some business owners initially opposed the restriction, but many later supported it after longer visitor stays increased local income.
- C. The project happened without any clear purpose.
- D. A mountain village limits the number of visitors during peak season.
- E. The text states that the activity was cancelled permanently.

2. Which TWO conclusions can reasonably be inferred?

- A. The writer suggests that no planning was needed.
- B. The text proves that every participant disagreed.
- C. The action described may create benefits beyond a single person.
- D. The people involved are trying to solve a practical problem.
- E. The activity had no effect on the community.

3. Which TWO purposes best describe the text?
