Electric Vehicles

Electric vehicles produce no exhaust emissions while being driven, but their overall environmental impact depends on how electricity and batteries are produced. Policymakers therefore need to consider the entire life cycle rather than promoting a single technology as a complete solution.

1. Which TWO statements are supported by the text?

- A. The text states that the activity was cancelled permanently.
- B. The main participants refused to take part.
- C. The project happened without any clear purpose.
- D. Electric vehicles produce no exhaust emissions while being driven, but their overall environmental impact depends on how electricity and batteries are produced.
- E. Policymakers therefore need to consider the entire life cycle rather than promoting a single technology as a complete solution.

2. Which TWO conclusions can reasonably be inferred?

- A. The writer suggests that no planning was needed.
- B. The text proves that every participant disagreed.
- C. The activity had no effect on the community.
- D. The people involved are trying to solve a practical problem.
- E. The action described may create benefits beyond a single person.

3. Which TWO purposes best describe the text?

- A. to give instructions for a competitive sport
- B. to entertain readers with an impossible fantasy
- C. to inform readers about an activity, issue, or initiative
- D. to advertise an unrelated luxury product
- E. to explain actions and their possible results

4. Consider the word “exhaust” in the text. Which TWO statements about it are most appropriate?

- A. a personal name that replaces the writer
- B. a word connected with the main topic
- C. a punctuation mark ending every paragraph
- D. a number showing the exact page
- E. a term whose meaning can be understood from nearby information

5. Which TWO evaluations of the text are accurate?

- A. The text includes specific details that support its main idea.
- B. The information is organized so readers can connect actions with outcomes.
- C. The passage avoids all references to actions or results.
- D. The title and content are completely unrelated.
- E. The text contains only unsupported personal insults.

Citizen Science

Citizen-science projects invite the public to record birds, rainfall, air quality, or other observations. Large numbers of participants can produce valuable datasets across wide areas. However, researchers must provide clear methods and verify unusual reports to maintain reliability.

6. Which TWO statements are supported by the text?

- A. However, researchers must provide clear methods and verify unusual reports to maintain reliability.
- B. The project happened without any clear purpose.
- C. The text states that the activity was cancelled permanently.

- C. The passage avoids all references to actions or results.
- D. The information is organized so readers can connect actions with outcomes.
- E. The text contains only unsupported personal insults.

Online Learning

Online courses can expand access for learners who live far from educational institutions. Their effectiveness, however, depends on stable internet, thoughtful course design, and learner self-discipline. Simply uploading long lectures rarely creates an engaging learning experience.

11. Which TWO statements are supported by the text?

- A. The main participants refused to take part.
- B. Simply uploading long lectures rarely creates an engaging learning experience.
- C. Online courses can expand access for learners who live far from educational institutions.

- D. The text includes specific details that support its main idea.
- E. The passage avoids all references to actions or results.

Urban Trees

Trees lower street temperatures, absorb some air pollutants, and make neighborhoods more attractive. Yet planting campaigns sometimes fail because species are poorly chosen or young trees receive little care. Long-term maintenance is as important as the number planted.

21. Which TWO statements are supported by the text?

- A. The project happened without any clear purpose.
- B. Long-term maintenance is as important as the number planted.
- C. The main participants refused to take part.
- D. Trees lower street temperatures, absorb some air pollutants, and make neighborhoods more attractive.
