Water Security

Rapid urban growth increases demand for clean water while reducing natural absorption areas. Cities can respond by repairing leaks, protecting watersheds, collecting rainwater, and encouraging efficient use. No single measure is sufficient on its own.

1. Which TWO statements are supported by the text?

- A. Rapid urban growth increases demand for clean water while reducing natural absorption areas.
- B. The project happened without any clear purpose.
- C. The main participants refused to take part.
- D. The text states that the activity was cancelled permanently.
- E. No single measure is sufficient on its own.

2. Which TWO conclusions can reasonably be inferred?

- A. The writer suggests that no planning was needed.
- B. The people involved are trying to solve a practical problem.
- C. The action described may create benefits beyond a single person.
- D. The text proves that every participant disagreed.
- E. The activity had no effect on the community.

3. Which TWO purposes best describe the text?

- A. to entertain readers with an impossible fantasy
- B. to advertise an unrelated luxury product
- C. to explain actions and their possible results
- D. to inform readers about an activity, issue, or initiative
- E. to give instructions for a competitive sport

4. Consider the word “increases” in the text. Which TWO statements about it are most appropriate?

- A. a number showing the exact page
- B. a personal name that replaces the writer
- C. a word connected with the main topic
- D. a punctuation mark ending every paragraph
- E. a term whose meaning can be understood from nearby information

5. Which TWO evaluations of the text are accurate?

- A. The information is organized so readers can connect actions with outcomes.
- B. The title and content are completely unrelated.
- C. The text contains only unsupported personal insults.
- D. The text includes specific details that support its main idea.
- E. The passage avoids all references to actions or results.

Volunteer Programs

Short-term volunteer programs can provide useful assistance, but they may also create dependency when local priorities are ignored. Effective programs are designed with communities, transfer skills, and evaluate whether benefits continue after volunteers leave.

6. Which TWO statements are supported by the text?

- A. The main participants refused to take part.
- B. The text states that the activity was cancelled permanently.
- C. The project happened without any clear purpose.
